

A

Registry-bias stress test

Random noise flips outcomes symmetrically; coordinated adverse bias recodes all four DID cells against the I2 result.

B

Bias level needed to erase the median DID

Random noise reaches zero only at the edge of the 50% noise envelope; directed bias is a stronger adversarial test.

